

Covid procedures for exhibitors

Prior to the show

- Exhibitors enter classes and pay fees via Entrymaster
- Covid risk guidance document is emailed to exhibitors.
- Exhibitors respond providing details of everyone in their party and confirming acceptance of the risk guidance document.
- Once this is recieved, wristbands and covid declaration slips will be posted out.

On Show Day

- On show day, exhibitors arrive in their vehicles and are directed to a 'check-in' area. Here wristbands will be checked and declarations will be collected.
- Exhibitors will be allowed access only to the relvant area of the show field (cattle, sheep, heavy horses, light horses). These areas will be physically seperated and the openings manned by stewards. Each area will have its own toilets etc and exhibitors will not be allowd to gather at a secretary's tent.

After the show

- Prize money will be paid by bank transfer
- Trophies will be engraved and distributed if requested by winner
- Covid declarations will be kept securely for 14 days in case required for track and trace purposes. After 14 days they will be securely destroyed.
